B04-BLAIR

“Damn rain,” Emily Bloch muttered to herself, her remark swallowed by a crack of thunder.

Her coupe’s headlights bored through the storm, twin fingers piercing the downpour as she looked for the roadside motel. Having seen the sign a few miles back, Emily’s head was on a swivel, her blue eyes squinting beneath a brow creased with worry. She needed to get off the road and rest. Today’s drive had begun shortly after noon when she had left the office to eat lunch and make the bank deposit. Emily had done neither. Now it was close to nine o’clock; she was starving and, in all likelihood, wanted by the police.

Mr. Holcombe would have notified the authorities by now. She wished she had been a fly on the wall when he had made that call, wished she could have seen her boss’s face and listened to his voice as he had reported her crime.

$140,000 was a lot of money, enough to put Emily behind bars for a long time. If she got caught. A very real possibility, she reasoned, if she skidded on the slick highway and crashed. She could see it now, the police responding to the one-car accident, coming to her aid and finding the satchel filled with cash. It wouldn’t be long before they put the pieces together.

Psych- Ho

Emily replied with a polite smile. She paid with cash produced from her purse. Clean money, she thought. Unlike the hot bills stowed in the satchel.

Emily saw the lighted sign. MO-TEL, she read through the driving rain. The tension in her neck, shoulders, and arms eased as she wheeled into the gravel parking lot.

A light was on in the small office. She extinguished her headlights and killed the engine, sitting there in her car and waiting for a lull in the storm. The satchel was on the passenger seat. She regarded it with a self-satisfied smile.

You did it, Emily. You really did it. Your ticket to a new life, a better life, the life you deserve . . .

Even through the relentless rain she saw the clerk come out from behind the counter with an umbrella, open the office door, and hasten to her car. Holding the satchel protectively, Emily opened the door before he could rap on the window, meeting him as he said, “It’s raining cats and dogs,” his voice raised to be heard over the storm.

Emily closed the door. “Goodness,” she said, her shoulder pressed to his as they rushed inside.

“Whew.” The clerk closed his umbrella. “It’s nasty out there.” He shut the office door.

He was a young man, Emily noted, approximately her age, perhaps a few years older, with a boyish face. Tall and lanky, he had a head of thick black hair. She liked him immediately, if for no other reason than his coming to her aid in chivalric fashion. Indeed, there was something old-fashioned about him, as if he had eschewed the values of his peers for a simpler, albeit less lucrative, way of life.

“I suppose you want a room,” he stated after moving behind the counter.

“Please,” Emily replied.

He turned his back to her to face a pegboard of keys. Lots of keys. Emily saw no empty hooks. This made perfect sense as she had seen no other cars parked outside. The motel was vacant, every last cabin. The clerk turned to face her, proffering a key which he placed in the palm of her hand.

"Cabin 1," he told her. "Right next door. That way I'll be close if you need any help . . ."

"Do you live here?" Emily asked.

"I do," the clerk said, gesturing toward a curtained door. The curtain was partially open, granting Emily a glimpse of his spartan apartment, a replica of the bachelor pads of her ex-boyfriend's. His eyes darted to the satchel she had placed atop the desk. "You packed light," he remarked.

Emily replied with a polite smile. She paid with cash produced from her purse. Clean money, she thought. Unlike the hot bills stowed in the satchel.

"Well," the clerk told her, "just sign the ledger here and you'll be set."

Out of habit Emily almost signed her actual name. Coming to her senses at the last second, she scribbled the first name that popped into her head. Hillary Moore, she wrote, her hand slightly shaky from nerves and lack of food.

"Okay, Ms. Moore," the clerk said after reading the ledger. "Enjoy your stay." Then, "Don't hesitate to call if you need anything. My name's Alfred, by the way."

"Thank you, Alfred." Emily grabbed the satchel.

She had almost reached the door when she stopped and turned around. Alfred frowned. "Something wrong, Ms. Moore?"

"I'm absolutely famished. Is there someplace nearby where I could get something to eat?"

"I'm afraid not. There's a diner just up the road, but it's already closed for the night."

"Shoot."

Alfred's boyish face lit up. "I was just about to eat dinner myself. I'd love the company . . ."

Emily didn't like the idea of eating with Alfred. He was a nice fellow, but she didn't want to make small talk, didn't want to have to manufacture answers to the questions he was sure to ask. Where are you from? Where do you work? Where are you headed? The mere thought of fielding such inquiries sapped her already flagging energy.

"That's very kind of you," she told him, "but I couldn't impose—"

"Nonsense." Alfred waved his hand dismissively. "It's no trouble at all. I'll make sandwiches. I'm no master chef, mind you, but I make a mean grilled cheese."

A quick bite, Emily told herself. No harm in that. Going to bed with an empty stomach was a bad idea. Tomorrow was a big day, her second as a fugitive from justice. She would need her strength.

"Okay," Emily said. "You talked me into it."

Hunger quelled by the sandwich and a cup of tomato soup, Emily locked the cabin door and breathed a sigh of relief.

She placed the satchel on the bed, resisting the temptation to count the money. There would be plenty of time for that after she took a shower. She felt dirty and contaminated from driving half the day and night. And she knew the amount. How could she forget? It was written on the deposit ticket Mr. Holcombe had handed her with the satchel. $140,000, she thought for the umpteenth time, smiling smugly despite her weariness.

The small bathroom was spotless. Emily wasn't surprised. Alfred's tidy apartment had been equally clean. The proprietor was a strange one, strange yet friendly. He had talked incessantly about his mother, so much so that Emily had grown slightly uneasy during dinner. His fixation didn't seem healthy.

She turned on the shower, letting the water heat up while she undressed beside the bed. Tossing her blouse and skirt on the comforter beside the satchel, she removed her brassiere, then sat on the bed to remove her thigh-high stockings.

Having removed one stocking, she paused, her face pinched with suspicion. She had the vague feeling of being watched. An icy chill ran down her spine even as she acknowledged the preposterousness of this. The cabin had one small window, and its curtain was closed all the way. Nobody could see her.

"Settle down," Emily muttered, removing the other stocking before standing and stepping out of her panties.

No sooner had the frilly article dropped to the carpeted floor than she saw it . . . a waist high hole in the wall!

She gaped dumbly, doing a doubletake as she peered disbelievingly at the small aperture. Alfred, she thought angrily. No wonder he had given her the cabin next door to the office. She had known there was something strange about him. But this—well, this was just too much! Was he watching her even now? Emily couldn't tell, so she stepped closer, covering herself with her hands as best she could. Her eyes riveted to the hole, she bent over for a closer look. And received her second jolt of the night when somebody, undoubtedly Alfred, shoved their cock through the opening!

Emily gasped, her eyes tripling in size as she gazed upon the biggest dick she had ever seen. Alfred, the dirty little creep, was proffering his pecker for a hummer. She didn't know whether to feel outraged or incredibly lucky.

"What kind of girl do you think I am, Alfred?" she said loud enough so that he could hear her through the wall.

"A bad girl," Alfred uttered raggedly. "A very bad girl."

He was right, Emily knew. She was a bad girl. Thief. Crook. And a whore, too. Because only a whore would get excited by the prospect of blowing a man she had just met.

And Emily was definitely excited.

She dropped her hands, uncovering herself even though Alfred's eye was no longer pressed to the hole. He had seen her undress; the time for watching was over. She crouched before his jutting member. Licking her lips, Emily touched herself.

"I'm so wet, Alfred."

Then she took him in her mouth.

In the steamy shower Emily scrubbed the cum from her face. Alfred's was a sizable load. She almost hated to wash it off. But there was more where it had come from.

And soon . . .

Soaping her breasts, she saw a dark shape through the shower curtain as he entered the bathroom. The shape grew larger as Alfred came closer, padding across the sparkly clean floor, closing the space between them.

Emily wasn't surprised. She knew he would come. The blowjob had whetted his appetite. Now he wanted to fuck her in earnest.

She wanted it, too, of course, wanted him to grab hold of her ass and hoist her off her feet and pound her against the tile wall. The vivid image pulsed in her mind as sudsy water sluiced over her shapely figure.

In her excitement Emily had left the satchel on the bed. After gaining entry to her cabin with his master key, Alfred would have walked right past it enroute to the bathroom. Had he inspected its contents? Perhaps even taken some of the booty for himself? She would be sure to count the money after he left, after he fucked her good and proper.

The shape expanded to life-size, freezing as it became a man-shaped silhouette on the water beaded curtain.

She waited with bated breath . . .

Metal rings slashed across the shower rod in a strident explosion of sound. Emily flinched. She hadn't expected such a dramatic entry. Alfred was full of surprises. He banged her long and hard before pulling out and shooting his wad. Jizz swirled down the drain . . . glug . . . glug . . . gone.

Hi there. I'm a laid back, fun-loving kind of girl who really enjoys having a lot of sex with really hot men and women. While I love sex, it's really not just a performance, it's the real me in front of those cameras. And that even goes to times when it is only me on the set. Today, I'm having a really good time in front of the camera - just for me - oh, and for you, too!

WORK HIS WAY UP

"I have an adventurous spirit when it comes to sex. There's little that is out of bounds. First there is that possibility of getting off in ways I haven't. The fact that there is the possibility of that happening is enough to get the adrenaline pumping! Then, there is also the thrill of doing it with someone new. When you do, the same old stuff just doesn't feel the same."

BLAIR-NTS-09

The flasher had a thing for joggers, so I wore a sports bra and a skimpy pair of athletic shorts. .

Flashed

"I worry about you," said Bobby.

My husband sounded like a broken record. If I had a nickel for every time he had said this to me—well, I would have had a nice little nest egg.

"Don't wait up," I said, blowing him a kiss before walking out the door.

Mine was an eight-block walk to the seventh precinct. It gave me time to think, time to make a gradual transformation from civilian to police officer. Tonight, I needed it more than ever. I had a lot on my mind . . .

Things weren't going so great with Bobby. Our sex life had hit rock bottom. He gave it the old college try, sure, but I couldn't get excited about an A for effort. I needed results. And Bobby just wasn't up to the challenge. Tonight's performance had been one of his worst. Hell, he hadn't even gotten hard enough to penetrate me. "I'm sorry," he had apologized lamely before rolling to his side of the bed. "This damn assignment of yours has me worried sick . . ."

Hell, I didn't like it either. But I had orders. And there were certainly worse decoy assignments than mine. It wasn't like I had been tasked with luring a cold-blooded murderer or armed robber, just some pervert who had been flashing women at Riverside Park. If he ever screwed up and flashed me, I would promptly produce my badge and place him under arrest.

Tonight, I hoped, my sneakers pounding the sidewalk as I approached the front steps of the precinct house. Pushing open the front doors, I went straight to the women's locker room to change clothes.

The flasher had a thing for joggers, so I wore a sports bra and a skimpy pair of athletic shorts. Posing in front of the full-length mirror, turning this way and that, I couldn't help but grin at my reflection. Long hours in the police gym had paid off. No doubt, this is why I had been chosen for the assignment. The flasher was sure to find me irresistible.

In theory, anyway. No luck thus far, but I had my fingers crossed.

Of course, I worked with a team. Officers Tidwell and Blanco, both armed, provided support, posing as homeless bums while I jogged the paved path. The flasher wasn't known to be violent, but you could never be too careful. Better safe, I knew, than sorry.

Most nights I jogged five miles. Tonight I planned to cover my usual distance. But I didn't make it.

I was cresting a small rise on the south side of the park, one of two sections not visible to Tidwell and Blanco, when the trenchcoated figure appeared from the shadows. Heart pounding, I froze in my tracks.

The figure opened his coat . . .

Standing there in the middle of the path, my adrenaline pumping like crazy, I found myself staring at the biggest cock I had ever seen in my life. No kidding. This guy would have given John Holmes a run for his money.

His face concealed in shadow, his immense package illuminated by a swath of moonlight, the flasher was rooted to the spot. My police training told me to whip out my shield and order the perpetrator to get on the ground. But all the training in the world didn't amount to much when confronted with that immense pytho hanging between his legs.

Bobby hadn't fucked me in how long? Too long.

"Nice cock," I said, blurting out the first thing that came to my mind.

This seemed to confuse the flasher. Clearly, he wasn't accustomed to such a reaction. Still, he didn't flee the scene. My words had mesmerized the guy, rendering him immobile like a hypnotist's charm.

I grunted when he entered me, grunted and gasped as my pussy yielded to his rigid rod. He fucked me hard and fast, deploying his tool like a battering ram.

"I've read all about you," I continued, referring to the many news articles written about his exhibitionist exploits. "I had no idea you were so—endowed."

The flasher began to pant. He lowered his hand and proceeded to masturbate. I lost all control, closing the short gap between us and kneeling before him. Pushing his hand aside, I gobbled his massive member. He was a mouthfu.

Giving him head had made my pussy nice and wet. I couldn't wait any longer. I wanted him inside me. Now . . .

I rose to my full height and took his hand, leading him to a trash receptacle beside the jogging path. I lowered my shorts and bent over the bin. "Fuck me," I told him over my shoulder. "Stick that big cock in my tight cunt."

Breathing raggedly, he moved behind me and placed his hands on my trim hips. His were coarse hands. The flasher was no stranger to hard labor. No pencil pusher, this guy. And definitely no pencil dick!

I grunted when he entered me, grunted and gasped as my pussy yielded to his rigid rod. He fucked me hard and fast, deploying his tool like a battering ram. My hands gripping the rim of the trash bin, the stench of garbage punching me in the face, I cried out in orgasm.

Moments later, the flasher grunted and tensed, his fingers digging into my taut flesh. I felt his hot seed running down the back of my leg. No sooner had I turned to face him than he wrapped up in his trenchcoat and dashed into a nearby copse of trees.

I pulled up my shorts and resumed my jog. Tidwell and Blanco had no idea that I had encountered our elusive quarry, much less fucked the guy. They sat on their respective benches, looking like the rest of the bums, the real bums, scattered throughout the park.

I cut my workout short, stopping after only three miles. The Riverside Flasher had worn me out but good!

DESTINY DIXON

"I'm kinda new to the business. I was a housewife for a few years, and had some retail jobs during my twenties but found them unfulfilling. Then, one night, this guy I was seeing brought over a porn video and it really turned me on. I was shocked at how much fun it seemed. He got the best fuck of his life that night — and so did I!"
